

We are deeply grateful to the thousands of supporters who continue to invest in our mission to provide food for hungry people while striving to end hunger in our community. The COVID-19 pandemic has galvanized our community in ways we could not have imagined. We are profoundly moved by the collective generosity of the many people, businesses and foundations which have empowered the Food Depository to serve unflinching in the face of ever-growing need. To the many who invested in our work to feed our neighbors facing hunger prior to the pandemic, those who increased their giving in the face of growing need, and to our new friends who joined us as we face the greatest challenge to date: Thank you for your ongoing support.
